The tourist section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet at 10 a. m. this morning at the club house. Papers will be given by Mrs. James and Mrs. Watson.

Miss Lydia Palmer's lecture on Leonardo da Vinci will be given at 10:30 Wednesday morning of this week, instead of this afternoon, as stated on the programme, as stated on the programme. The lecture is one of a series on the masters of the Renaissance which is being given by Miss Palmer.

Invitations have been issued by the Gamma Phi Sorority of the university for a reception to be given in honor of the members of the Theta Upsilon Sorority on Saturday, November 7. The affair promises to be one of the most brilliant of the early social events.

The members of St. Paul's choir entertained about forty at a Halloween masquerade dancing party at the Ladies' Literary club house Monday evening. The hall was lighted with a number of pumpkins and the rooms profusely decorated in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. Many pretty as well as unique costumes were worn. Among them were: Mrs. C. C. Perkins, as a Japanese lady; Rev. Perkins, as a clown; Miss Zora Shaw, a colonial lady; Miss Grace Wilton, an Indian; Miss Renee Redman, a drummer girl; Miss Edith Beles, a French doll; Miss Susie Wilton, a Japanese; Jack Berkhoel, as George Washington; Miss Marie Berkhoel, a Spanish dancer; Miss Rose Howard, a Grecian; Miss Mary Emerson, as Night; Mr. Walker and Mr. Enoch, as clowns; Mr. Sealey, as a cowboy; Mr. Frank, as an Indian, and many others. An orchestra furnished the music. The grand march was at 9 o'clock and unmasking at 10 o'clock. Fortune telling was given by a gypsy. Punch was served downstairs by Mrs. Howard, and others assisting were Mrs. Doty and Miss Sealey. Very unique programmes were used, done in watercolor, witches and black cats for the ladies and pumpkins for the men.

The Way home on East South Temple was the scene of a pretty bridge tea Monday afternoon, when Mrs. Wey and her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Paul, entertained nine tables, the second in a series. The rooms were bright with many cases of pink and white carnations and ferns, with a tall vase of them in the center of the tea table, where Mrs. De Bouzek, Miss Tinsman and Miss Gibbons poured tea. Prizes were won by Mrs. Elmer Darling, Mrs. Edwin Butler, Mrs. L. A. McClure, Mrs. McGanney, Mr. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. E. M. Moore, Miss Nan Gibbons and Miss Selma Wall.

At the Halloween masquerade dance at Rowland hall Saturday evening, prizes were given to the two best costumes and the winners for the evening were Miss Violet Schillerstron, a boarder at the school, who represented an Indian girl, and Miss Olive Wall, in an 1830 gown of white satin, made Empire, with a large black picture hat with white plumes. The grand march was led by Miss Alberta Bradley, as a bat, and Miss Lucy Bullis in a gown of black and white.

Mrs. Lulu Mayne Windsor, who has spent the summer in Paris, will be here today, and leave Thursday for her home in Los Angeles. While here she will be the guest of her sister, Dr. Grace Stratton.

Mrs. C. W. Mount and her daughter, Miss Mount, will leave soon to spend the holidays with Mrs. Mount's other daughter, Mrs. Brown, at San Antonio, Texas.

Mrs. Louis Cohn and Misses Edna and Sylvia Cohn reached New York from Paris, Monday. They are expected here November 17.

Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff entertained six tables at an informal bridge tea Monday afternoon at her home, which was prettily decorated in autumn flowers.

Gordon Ireland of New York and his friend, Henry Brigham of Boston, will be here Saturday for the Maynard Ireland wedding on November 11.

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and Mrs. Kissick will leave Thursday for Long Beach, Cal., where Mrs. Kissick will spend the winter.

A. H. Snow will leave today for a three weeks' trip to Mexico.

FRAUDS WILL BE DETECTED.

It will be dangerous for the church party tools to commit frauds, either in the vote or the count.

All who are legally entitled to vote must and will vote.

All legal votes must and will be counted.

Any attempt to intimidate voters will be resented and resisted.

Any fraudulent count will be exposed in the courts, and the criminals guilty of the offense against law and public right will be prosecuted to conviction.

Watchful eyes will be everywhere, and no crookedness or fraud will fail of detection.

It therefore becomes all in charge of the election to do their work honestly and fairly. If they do not, they are sure of exposure and punishment.
